Business Legislation for Management, 4th Edition M.C. Kuchhal & Vivek Kuchhal Business Legislation for Management is meant for students of business management, who need to be familiar with business laws and company law in their future role as managers. The book explains these laws in a simple and succinct manner, making the students sufficiently aware of the scope of these laws so that they are able to operate their businesses within their legal confines. The book approaches the subject in a logical way, so that even a student with no legal background is able to understand it. The book is the outcome of the authors' long experience of teaching business law and company law to students pursuing undergraduate and postgraduate courses at the University of Delhi. This, in fact, has made it possible for them to write on law without the use of legal jargon; thus ensuring that even the most complicated provisions of various legislations are explained in an easily comprehensible manner. This new edition of the book has been thoroughly updated, revised and expanded keeping in mind the requirements of diverse syllabuses of various universities. New in this Edition • Laws of Intellectual Property Rights that include Patents Act, 1970, Copyright Act, 1957, Trade Marks Act, 1999, and Designs Act, 2000 • Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 • Competition Act, 2002 Salient Features • Unfolds intricate points of law to solve intriguing questions • Elucidates practical implications of law through a large number of illustrations

Communication Research: Asking Questions, Finding Answers Joann Keyton 2014-02-25 Communication Research: Asking Questions, Finding Answers covers basic research issues and processes, both quantitative and qualitative, appropriate for communication students with little or no previous research methods experience. The text's guiding principle is that methodological choices are made from one's research questions or hypotheses. This avoids the pitfall in which students learn one methodology or one methodological skill and then force that method to answer all types of questions. Instead of working with one methodology to answer all types of questions, students come away understanding a variety of methods and how to apply them appropriately.
